Subject: [desb-staff] Assistant Dean , Strategic Initiatives: Marketing, Communications, and Analytics

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce that Ruchi Watson has been promoted to the position of Assistant Dean Strategic Initiatives: Marketing, Communications, and Analytics at the David Eccles School of Business.

In this role, Ruchi, working collaboratively with the senior management team and a professional staff, will play a critical role in the leadership of the Eccles School. She will work closely others in in creating, refining and implementing the School's strategic plan. She will also provide leadership in developing and implementing policies and procedures, as well as in directing and overseeing marketing, communications, data analysis, and strategic functions.

Please join me in congratulating Ruchi in her new role.

Best,
Taylor
